EYFS's Christmas Nativity

What a brilliant EYFS we have! Thank you to everyone who came to watch the performances. From Mary to the shepherds and all of the animals, the entire cast were fantastic. They performed three times and gave maximum effort every single time. We certainly have some budding actors in the cohort. Thank you to our EYFS staff team for facilitating such a great nativity.

Christmas Hampers

Thank you for all of the donations which we received for the Christmas hampers and for all of the raffle tickets bought. Congratulations to the winners of the 6 hampers – enjoy!

Celebration Assembly

This morning we held our E H C core values shield assembly. Every class teacher awarded a pupil either the excellence, the harmony or the compassion award. The overall shield award was then won by EYFS and KS1 for their nativity performances. Well done to all of the winners, who all should be extremely proud of their efforts as this award reflects consistency across the entire half term. If your child won one of the three shields, please do ensure the shield is returned to school on the first day back in the new year. Thank you.

Carol Service

What a lovely service we had at St Anthony's this afternoon. Thank you to everyone who came and to the pupils for bringing their great singing voices.

Staffing Update

Earlier this week we said goodbye to Mrs Inman who, after 11 years here at Endsleigh, is retiring from the profession. We wish Mrs Inman all the best and know that her and her husband will thoroughly enjoy their time travelling the world as well as tending to their lovely garden.

We also say goodbye to Miss Rimmington who leaves her role as MSA after 5 years. We thank her and wish her all the best as she continues her journey.

Miss Recepcion has been working in Class 4 and in the spring term will continue her teacher training at another school before returning here for the summer term. We thank her for all of her effort this term.

Class 1/2 will welcome Miss Allison in the New Year to job share with Mrs Knight.
